

Time Well Spent

‘Michael Turner’s Waltz’

There’ll be good times and there’ll be hard times
There’ll be laughter, sometimes torment
But in all things we are together
And this time, is time well spent

In the darkness we will find light and
We will fight for the dreams that we have dreamt
Sharing this day together
And this time in time well spent
